THE SWEETEST DREAM.

How my loving heart has wandered,

Filling up the wierd recesses With a thousand glory-beams---Making all the day so happy With some beauty-haunted thought That, from out the fleebing visions,

I had by some magic caught. Oh. I've had sweet dreams of childhood-And I danced adown the meadow, With a shout of childish give, Suthering the starry blossoms-Chasing butterfly and bird-List ning to their mystic language,

Which my spirit only beard. And I've dreamed of halls of aroudeur, Where in haushty pride I dwelt, White a crowd of zold-god services
Ever at my foot-tool knell; Pearls and gems were on my bosom, On my brow a crown of gold— On my lips a song of gladne-,

But, within, a heart so coul.

Then I've dreamed of gorzeous temples h here was shrit all the Goddess Tame, And she gave me wreaths of linest-Told me that my simple anme Echned wide o'er land and beron-That each thought and slightest word Hed, within some haman be-out, Deep the fount of feeling stirred

But I've had snother vision. That has made toy warm heart leap Though 'twas but a wild illusion, I would yet the memory keep; For the world had failed to charm his With its hollow-intered praise, And my spirit, and and lonely. Signed for olden, brighter days.

Then a noble form stood near me, And an airnest voice, but low, As it simply whispered, "barling," Through my being sent a glow; For I knew my heart, so weary, Now had found a place of test-Like a bird that long has wanderedheached at last the dear home-nest

Gazing now adown the vista Of the starry realm of dreams, Here and there athrough the cloud-rifts, Bright some ray of beauty streams: And as all these haunting visions Come at memory's gentle call, Still this last one is the brightest, And the sweetest of them all.

Nothing is more unbecoming than over-loaded beauty. The simplicity of the classic taste is seen in the old statues and pictures, painted by men of very superior artistic genius. In Athens the ladies were not gaudily, but simply arrayed, and we doubt whether any ladies excited more admiration. So also the noble old Roman matrons, whose superb forms were worthy of them, were always very plainly dressed. #### The Old Wife's Kiss.

The funeral services were ended, and as the voice of prayer ceased, tears were hastily wiped off from wet checks, and longdrawn sighs relieved suppressed and choking sobs, as the mourners prepared to take leave of the corpse.

It was an old man that lay there, robed

"A heap.

"What ails your pants?"
"Tore 'em," was the laconic answer. Finding that he had hold of a genius that could not be pumped, Mr. Lord turned his head to depart, but in his return was now hailed by the boy, who, in a comical, half reluctant tone, exclaimed:

$1.833.298 The United States, from Boston and Nev York alone, shipped nearly twenty-seven millions of dollars in the first six month of the present year. That, hewever, which was shipped in the last half of July did not appear in the English returns for the firs six months, since it had not arrived. The general result shows that in the aggregate France and England absorb the metals largely, while the United States are undergoing rapid depletion. The exports in the ast two months have been over twenty millions of dollars. The English return gives twenty million seven hundred and seventy nice thousand nine hundred and twenty-six dollars received from the United States in the first six months of the present year, which leaves sixteen million nine hundred and one thousand dollars as the amount sent hence to the Continent and elsewhere. Paring Act of Revenue by the Mexican Guerillus—Attack on the City of Brownsville, Texas.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 10 .-- The steamer Arizona, from Point Isabel, has arrived bringing startling intelligence.

The city of Brownsville, Texas, was at tacked on the 28th ult. by a band of gueril las, who killed five of its citizens, broke open the jail and set free the prisoners, and committed other high-handed outrages on the persons and property of the inhabitants. An intense excitement prevailed. The Mexicans had sent aid from Matamoras .-The guerillas were headed by Cartenas, the same desperade who shot the sheriff of Brownsville last July, while the latter was attempting to arrest him. The party, one hundred strong, mounted on horseback, rode into the city, and portions of it.

General Carvajal and others, from Mai amoras, arrived in the city and persuaded the outlaws to leave. Fort Brown was garrisoned with Mexican truops from Matamoras. The citizens of Brownsville had formed a patrol. The outlaws had encamped near the city. The Mexican General visited their camp and obtained a promise that they would not molest Brownsville again. The citizens, however, still expect another atwere more on their list to be killed. Au express had been sent to San Antonio for

The cause of the difficulty was Cartenas' desire for revenge, for alleged injuries done him by some of the inhabitants of Brownsville. The citizens had mostly fled to Matamoras for protection.

> mail of the 16th, which arrived here to-day, brings intelligence that the duel between Senator Broderick and Judge Terry, of the Supreme Court of the State of California, took place near San Francisco on the morning of the 13th. Mr. Broderick fell at the first fire, pierced through the lungs. He until half-past nine on the mornlingered ing of the 16th, when he died. Judge Terry was unhart. The community was profoundly agitated. Judge Terry, who was the challenger, it appears, killed him at the first fire. The riginal cause of the difficulty was political, and the foud had been kept up for some time. In the late State election there were two democratic tickets, representing the Gwin and the Broderick factions. Terry supported the former, which finally triumphed, after a violent contest, and hard words spoken on both sides. Mr. Broderick will be recollected as an old New York city

It has been deemed proper to obtain a statue of Washington, by Powers, and an order to that effect was given some time since.— The statue arrived at New York from Leghorn a short time since. It is the property of the Fredericksburg lodge, and has been paid for by voluntary contributions of the Masonic order generally. It cost $5,000, and is somewhat larger than life. It is proposed also to erect a building at Fredericksburg suitable for the statue and to inaugurate it with appropriate ceremonics.

FAULLY MEDICINES

A Rethe only preparations of the kind placed before the public under the name of Echecic. They are a Bed Echecic because they are carefully and scientifically selected-the BEST from all the GOOD -and approved by the most scientific men in the United States. They do not contain any Mercury, Autimony, or Opinm, or anything that would be deleterious to the most delicate constitution.

All who an lerstand the earing of disease know that medicines only assist a cure, and untess they act and hermonize with nature, disease cannot be cured. Want of a proper kn ovledge of these lacts causes many fellow effizers to go down to an untimely

I can therefore recommend this preparation with the armost confidence, and am fully persuaded, from ast experience at the hed side of the sick, that it will give very general, if not universal satisfaction. Yet, at the same time. I do not pretend to say that it is a of BE ALL, or that it is, in all cases and circumstances, infallible. For when a remoly se set forth as "Core-All," "Infallible," &c., the conclusion with me is irresistible, that the proprietor himself believes his remedy to be a humbug, and designed from the start to deceive the public.
